

7-8 класс

Вариант 1

Задание 01

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. “There is no place like home,” they say. “The Englishman’s home is his castle” is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity. These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

The Englishmen have a bad reputation among different nations in the world.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 02

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. "There is no place like home," they say. "The Englishman's home is his castle" is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity. These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

English people are home-centered.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 03

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. "There is no place like home," they say. "The Englishman's home is his castle" is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity. These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

Russia has contributed a lot to the world civilization.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 04

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. "There is no place like home," they say. "The Englishman's home is his castle" is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity. These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

Khokhloma style has been a typical Russian craft since Kievan Russ.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 05

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. "There is no place like home," they say. "The Englishman's home is his castle" is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity. These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

English people usually prefer to live in large houses with many families.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 06

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. “There is no place like home,” they say. “The Englishman’s home is his castle” is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity. These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

Russian people are shown as kind and creative in fairy tales.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 07

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. “There is no place like home,” they say. “The Englishman’s home is his castle” is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity.

These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

The Khokhloma painting style uses plant elements and bright colors.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 08

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

RUSSIA'S TRADITIONS AND CULTURE

Every nation and country has a reputation of some kind. The Englishmen are believed to be cold, reserved, polite, rather easy-going and fond of sport. They are often described as a nation of stay-at-homes. “There is no place like home,” they say. “The Englishman’s home is his castle” is a well-known saying all over the world. Most English people prefer a small house built for one family, usually with a small garden and a fireplace in the centre of the house. They are fond of animals and follow many traditions, like food and table manners.

We know a lot about English traditions and customs, but I would like to speak more about the traditions and creative spirit of my native land — Russia.

Russian people are known for their hospitality, open-heartedness and generosity. These qualities are reflected in our folk tales, songs and literature. Russians are often described as emotional, soulful, inventive and deeply attached to their cultural roots. Despite facing many hardships throughout history, the Russian people have stayed strong, patient and full of hope.

Russia has made a great contribution to world civilization, especially in the fields of literature, music, ballet, science, and visual arts. The names of Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, Pushkin, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Mendeleev and Pavlov are known worldwide. Russian art is rich and diverse: from the bright colors of Kandinsky and Malevich to the delicate beauty of ballet performed by the Bolshoi and Mariinsky theatres.

Traditional Russian crafts also show the deep connection of our people with nature and beauty. Gzhel, Palekh, and Khokhloma are not just decorative styles — they are symbols of national identity and pride. For example, Khokhloma painting, which began in the 17th century in the villages of the Nizhny Novgorod region, is famous for its eye-catching flower and berry patterns. It is traditionally used to decorate wooden tableware such as spoons, bowls, and plates. The main colors are black, red, gold, and green.

This craft has been carefully preserved and passed from one generation to another. Even today, many talented painters and craftsmen work in this style, keeping the traditions alive and developing them further. Khokhloma, like many other Russian forms of art, is not only a beautiful decoration, but also a symbol of the soul of our people.

The Gzhel and Khokhloma styles were invented in the 21st century.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 09

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 9 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: as

Задание 10

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 10 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: to

Задание 11

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 11 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: to

Задание 12

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 12 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: on

Задание 13

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 13 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: such

Задание 14

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 14 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: up

Задание 15

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 15 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: not / never

Задание 16

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 16 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: in

Задание 17

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 17 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: can't / cannot

Задание 18

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 18 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My father works (9) _____ a scientist and I think he always wanted me (10) _____ share his interest. So when I was a child, he always took me (11) _____ his lab every weekend and showed me the things he was working (12) _____ there. I loved going there and I thought my dad was (13) _____ a great scientist. I wanted to grow (14) _____ and become a brilliant scientist, like him.

Sadly, though, that has (15) _____ happened! And (16) _____ fact, now I'm older, I've realised I really (17) _____ stand studying Biology! It's just not my subject. But luckily, I love Maths and Dad's passionate (18) _____ that, too!

Правильный ответ: about

Задание 19

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Jason started _____ comics when he was eight, and now he's got hundreds of them.

A - taking

B - spending

C - collecting

D - caring

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 20

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

When I buy something online, I always use my mum's _____ .

A - receipt

B - sale

C - price

D - card

Правильный ответ: D

Задание 21

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

You _____ eat a lot of sweets. They're not good for you.

A - don't have to

B - won't

C - can't

D - shouldn't

Правильный ответ: D

Задание 22

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Can I ask you _____ questions?

A - a few

B - a little

C - any

D - much

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 23

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Liam saw a great jacket in a shop. He _____ and it looked good, so he bought it.

A - dressed it up

B - checked it out

C - tried it on

D - saved it up

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 24

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Do you think all cars _____ electric in the future?

A - are

B - are going to be

C - will be

D - are being

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 25

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

The girls have been at the library _____ two o'clock.

A - at

B - since

C - already

D - for

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 26

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

It was late, but he _____ walking around the city.

A - decided

B - continued

C - arranged

D - planned

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 27

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Is there somewhere in this café where I can _____ my phone?

A - delete

B - search

C - charge

D - download

Правильный ответ: С

Задание 28

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

When the alarm _____ this morning, I didn't want to get out of bed.

A - plugged in

B - went off

C - switched on

D - set up

Правильный ответ: В

Задание 29

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

I'm looking for the post office. Can you tell me _____ ?

A - where is it

B - where it is

C - it is where

D - is it where

Правильный ответ: В

Задание 30

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Jane and her family _____ in London, but they don't now.

A - used to live

B - live

C - are living

D - had lived

Правильный ответ: А

Вариант 2

Задание 01

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians.

Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

No other country celebrates a National Day on 12 June.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 02

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians. Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

In 2002, 'Russia Day' was on a Saturday.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 03

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians.

Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

Buses and trains operate as usual in most places on 12 June.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 04

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians.

Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

On 12 June, the Russian President gives a speech at midday.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: С

Задание 05

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians.

Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

There are only a few firework displays on 12 June.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: В

Задание 06

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians.

Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

Some people in other countries also celebrate Russia Day.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: А

Задание 07

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians.

Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

The dinner in 2012 helped make some people become better friends.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: А

Задание 08

Read the text and decide if the sentence is 'Right' or 'Wrong'. If there is not enough information in the text to answer 'Right' or 'Wrong', choose 'Doesn't say'.

Russia Day – A New National Holiday

Russia Day is a national holiday in Russia. It is celebrated every year on 12 June. This is the day when modern Russian democracy began. On 12 June 1990, Russian leaders signed an important document. It was called the Declaration of State Sovereignty. It said that Russia would become an independent and democratic country.

At first, the day was called the Day of Signing the Declaration of State Sovereignty. Later, in 2002, the name changed to a simpler one — Russia Day. Russia Day is a public holiday. Most banks, schools and government offices are closed. However, public transport still works, but less often than usual. People can see the Russian flag everywhere and the symbol of the country — the two-headed eagle.

There are many celebrations on this day. In Moscow, there is usually a big parade and sports events near the Kremlin. The President of Russia gives a speech and also gives awards to famous people, like writers, scientists or musicians.

Some people do not know exactly how to celebrate Russia Day, because it is a new holiday. But there are still many ways to enjoy it. There are fireworks and music concerts in many cities. People also celebrate their cultural traditions. They wear traditional clothes and show national dances. Others go to the countryside for a picnic. Some groups use this day to talk about environmental problems and show love for their country.

Russian people who live in other countries also celebrate this day. For example, in 2012 in Chicago, USA, there was a big dinner. Important people from Russia and America came. There were speeches, Russian classical music, and traditional Russian food. Soldiers from both countries were also honoured. It was a way to celebrate Russia Day and make good connections between people.

No matter how people celebrate, Russia Day is about remembering the past, living in the present, and thinking about the future — all together as one nation.

People celebrated Russia Day more in the past than they do now.

A - Right

B - Wrong

C - Doesn't say

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 09

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 9 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: as

Задание 10

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 10 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: to

Задание 11

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 11 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: In

Задание 12

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 12 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: was

Задание 13

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 13 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: when / after

Задание 14

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 14 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: taking / bringing

Задание 15

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 15 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: to

Задание 16

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 16 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: so

Задание 17

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 17 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: not

Задание 18

Read the text, and write the correct word in gap 18 to complete the text.

Use only one word for the gap.

My mother works (9) _____ a doctor. It's a career she decided (10) _____ follow from an early age. (11) _____ fact, at the time my parents first met, my mother (12) _____ studying hard to graduate. Later, (13) _____ she became a doctor, she enjoyed (14) _____ me to her clinic sometimes (15) _____ show me her work. She was (16) _____ inspiring that I thought I might become a doctor too.

Sadly, though, that hasn't happened yet! For one thing, I'm (17) _____ prepared to spend hours studying so hard. Anyway, I now think I (18) _____ prefer to go to art college and become an artist. And luckily, my parents are very happy about that decision!

Правильный ответ: would

Задание 19

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

If you want to read more about the subject, just _____ this link.

A - click on

B - visit

C - download

D - go

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 20

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

We do our homework in our _____ and then give them to our teacher.

A - notes

B - notebooks

C - marks

D - uniform

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 21

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Lucy isn't here. She _____ to the library.

A - will go

B - has been

C - was gone

D - has gone

Правильный ответ: D

Задание 22

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

On Sunday we're going to a lovely restaurant _____ the sea.

A - by

B - in

C - at

D - on

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 23

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

I'm not _____ to lift this heavy box.

A - strong enough

B - too strong

C - enough strong

D - as strong as

Правильный ответ: A

Задание 24

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Don't worry if you _____ a mistake. It's a good way to learn.

A - do

B - have

C - make

D - get

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 25

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

Mr Smith has taught English at our school _____ twenty years.

A - already

B - since

C - for

D - from

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 26

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

We _____ to have a summer holiday this year.

A - enjoy

B - hope

C - like

D - love

Правильный ответ: B

Задание 27

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

You can _____ your printer to your computer very easily.

A - install

B - tap

C - upload

D - connect

Правильный ответ: D

Задание 28

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

_____ sport is very good for your health.

A - Play

B - Plays

C - To play

D - Plaing

Правильный ответ: C

Задание 29

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

English _____ in many countries around the world.

A - speaks

B - has spoken

C - is speaking

D - is spoken

Правильный ответ: D

Задание 30

Read the sentence below and decide which answer best fits the space. Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

I meet my friends at the youth club. That's where we usually _____ .

A - go for

B - hang out

C - put together

D - deal with

Правильный ответ: B